HEI works impartially and do not promote individual products. Horizon scans can be completed to look at innovations that are available in the same area so the most appropriate innovations can be selected based on many factors e.g., cost, research/evidence and ability to used/implemented into local services and pathways. A competitor analysis has been completed for GaitSmart. New innovations are usually piloted first with real world evaluation to provide evidence of their positive impact locally before innovations are adopted fully.	01/11/2023
